Hoofland's German Bitters

Hoofland's German Tonic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with Punn Santa Cenz Rum, Occupe, etc. It is used for the same disease as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that there remains are entirely different from any others subcritised for the error of the dis-

I find "Hoodand's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous actions in the system. Yours truly.

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Mayon's Orrice, Burralo, June 22, 1869.

I have used "Hoofand's German Sitters and Tonic" in my family during the past year, and can recommend them as an excellent tonic, imparting tone and rigor to the system. Their use has been productive of decidedly beneficial effects. WM. F. ROGERS. HON. JAMES M. WOOD,

HON, WM. F. ROGERS,

. Payor of the city of Buffalo, N. Y.

Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pennsylvani I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's Derman Tonic" to any one who may be smicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so weak as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure.

CAUTION. Hoofand's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All is entirely veretable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these Extracts are made, are gathered from Gennary. All the Medical virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. Those extracts are them forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, honce it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

DEBILITY.

Like the following was never before offered in behalf
